Buckeye Cruise for Cancer

Press Release

The Second Annual Buckeye Cruise for Cancer sets sail February 12-16, 2009.

Travel Partners in Dublin is proud to announce the second annual Buckeye Cruise for Cancer hosted by Stefanie and Chris Spielman, February 12-16, 2009. The four night cruise onboard Royal Caribbean's Grandeur of the Seas will set sail out of Tampa Florida to Key West and Cozumel Mexico. The Buckeye Cruise for Cancer will unite Buckeye fans together in the tradition of team spirit to raise funds and awareness for cancer research. Funds raised on board the Grandeur of the Seas will benefit the Stefanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research at Ohio State's Comprehensive Cancer Center - James Cancer Hospital and Solove Research Institute.

Celebrities joining the Spielmans on the cruise; will include Bobby Carpenter, Doug Datish, Simon Fraser, AJ Hawk, Kirk Herbstreit, Craig Krenzel, Nick Mangold, Mike Nugent, Coach Earl Bruce, Brutus Buckeye and many more!

Entertainment will include the OSU Alumni Band, alumni cheerleaders, and Columbus's own Chris Logsdon.

This year's cruise highlights include: an autograph and photo session by the athletes, Buckeye Idol with celebrity judges, "Football 101" for women only with Ryan Miller and Craig Krenzel, onboard ship Olympics with athlete participation, a book signing and trivia with Jack Park, stories of the Buckeye Flags by the Flag Ladies, question and answer session with the athletes, a Cancer survivor breakfast hosted by Stefanie Spielman, "Let's Make a Buckeye Deal Game Show", auctions and raffles for fabulous prizes including cars from Buckeye Nissan/Honda, shopping sprees from the Kroger Co., and priceless autographed memorabilia and athlete experiences - where you can win dinner or a round a golf with one of the celebrities.

When New York Jets kicker Mike Nugent was asked to return for the cruise in 2009 he replied, "I am completely in! The cruise was the most fun I have ever had. I loved mingling with everyone."

Craig Krenzel also had an amazing experience stating, "My wife, Beth and I had a tremendous amount of fun on the first cruise. The players and fans were great and Stefanie continues to be an inspiration to all of us. Everyone likes a mid-winter vacation, especially one that benefits such an incredible cause. We can not wait until the next one!"
